

Royal Heritage with Temple Marvels

📅 7 Nights / 8 Days

Main Image

Overview

Uncover India's rich tapestry of forgotten kingdoms and spiritual artistry in this immersive 8-day cultural journey through Delhi, Agra, Orchha, and Khajuraho. Designed for seekers of history and hidden beauty, this tour reveals India's lesser-explored marvels—from the majestic Taj Mahal to the intricate carvings of Khajuraho's erotic temples, and the regal charm of Orchha's medieval architecture.

Wander through palaces, stand in temples adorned with ancient passion, and feel the pulse of India's spiritual and royal legacy. With curated stays, guided sightseeing, and entry fees included, this is the ultimate offbeat adventure for the culturally curious traveler.

Highlights

- 🏰 Visit iconic and hidden heritage sites across Delhi, Agra, Orchha, and Khajuraho
- 🌅 Experience the ethereal beauty of the Taj Mahal at sunset
- 🏰 Discover the offbeat royal charm of Orchha Fort and Chhatris
- 🏰 Explore the sensual and spiritual carvings of Khajuraho's UNESCO temples
- 🏰 Admire the mural-filled interiors of Raj Mahal and Chaturbhuji Temple
- 🌿 Travel in comfort through scenic rural landscapes of central India
- 🎫 All monument entry tickets and guided tours included
- 🏠 Stay in handpicked heritage-style accommodations for a unique experience
- 🧘 Enjoy a reflective journey through India's spiritual and artistic past

Detailed Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrival in Delhi - City of Legacies and Layers

Arrive in India's vibrant capital and settle into your hotel. Spend the evening at your pace—perhaps indulge in street food at Connaught Place or relax in your hotel as you prepare for the heritage immersion ahead.
□ Overnight stay in Delhi.

Day 2 - Old Meets New - Discovering Delhi's Dual Identity

Your guided tour starts with Old Delhi—walk through the lanes of Chandni Chowk, admire Jama Masjid, and pass the grand façade of the Red Fort. Then step into the colonial elegance of New Delhi, visiting Qutub Minar, Humayun's Tomb, and India Gate. This day bridges India's Mughal past with its imperial and modern story.
□ Overnight stay in Delhi.

Day 3 - Agra - The Monument of Love and Power

Travel by road to Agra, the city of love and emperors. Visit the imposing Agra Fort, where battles were fought and emperors once ruled. Then behold the grandeur of the Taj Mahal at sunset, from the peaceful Mehtab Bagh, framed by the Yamuna River.
□ Overnight stay in Agra.

Day 4 - Journey to Orchha - Time Stands Still in Stone

Drive to Orchha, Madhya Pradesh's best-kept secret. This riverside town once served as the capital of the Bundela kings. Explore the Orchha Fort Complex, featuring palaces with delicate murals and commanding towers. Enjoy the relaxed, rustic ambiance as history echoes through every courtyard.
□ Overnight stay in Orchha.

Day 5 - Palaces, Temples & Cenotaphs - Orchha's Royal Canvas

Spend a full day exploring Orchha's unique blend of Rajput and Mughal architecture. Marvel at the soaring Chaturbhuja Temple, the intricately designed Raj Mahal, and the serene cenotaphs (chhatris) lining the Betwa River. This hidden town offers stories of valor, romance, and deep devotion.

□Overnight stay in Orchha.

Day 6 - Drive to Khajuraho - Enter the Temple Kingdom

Today, travel to Khajuraho, a UNESCO World Heritage site famed for its breathtaking temples. Check into your hotel and relax for the evening. Optional: Attend a light and sound show that narrates the story of Khajuraho's rise and decline amidst soundscapes and dramatic lighting.
□ Overnight stay in Khajuraho.

Day 7 - Temples of Art, Erotica & Devotion - Khajuraho Explored

Explore the world-famous Khajuraho Temples, where stone comes alive through carvings that celebrate life, love, and spirituality. Visit both the Western and Eastern Group of Temples, admiring the craftsmanship that has defied time. Each sculpture tells a story—sensual, sacred, or symbolic.
□ Overnight stay in Khajuraho.

Day 8 - Departure from Khajuraho - Farewell to Forgotten Glories

After breakfast, enjoy free time depending on your departure schedule. You may choose to explore local crafts or simply reflect on the rich stories you've encountered. Later, transfer to the airport or railway station for your onward journey.

Accommodation Used